

HOW DO YOU KNOW WHEN YOUR WORK IS READY FOR PUBLICATION?

READ YOUR WORK ALOUD OR TAP OUT PACING

Listen or feel for pacing or stuck moments. You'll find errors but also areas that are dragging or jarring.

STEP AWAY

Get some distance.
Take a walk. Live.
Return with new vision
and a freshed mind.

GET FEEDBACK

Share your work with other writers and readers that will give you honest feedback.
Yep, honest feedback.

IS IT GETTING BETTER OR JUST DIFFERENT?

Are the details just details?
More of the same? Changed,
but without added significance?
Find meaning in your revision, not just a different way of saying something.
